Her responsibilities included looking after the kids, making all their meals, housesitting when needed, cooking dinner for the house when asked, cleaning and running various errands. She looked after and played with the kids. She has a good knowledge for children's activities and also attended a course. Grace also stayed late when we needed her and never complained. She is also able to sew and has attended multiple sewing courses. Grace house-sat whenever we went away including looking after our two dogs.
